To Parents and Students in the Richboro Middle School Attendance Area:

On Thursday, May 15, 2008, the Board of School Directors approved an attendance exception that would provide eighth grade students at Richboro Middle School choice of high schools under the following conditions and provisions:

1. A formal request by the parent or legal guardian of a current eighth grade student to change their assigned high school must be made in writing to the Richboro Middle School Office by February 6, 2009.
2. This attendance area exception comes without Council Rock transportation. The parent or guardian must bear the responsibility to transport the student to the requested high school.

Should you have any questions, please contact the Richboro Middle School Office.

Respectfully,

Mark Klein
Superintendent of Schools
