

L practice

last

late

leash

list

light

lock

lunch

lake

lamp

leaf

leg

lid

left

line

love

lift

alarm

balloon

chilly

bowling

goalie

July

pillow

police

salad

wallet

alligator

umbrella

gorilla

elephant

elevator

blue

blanket

block

flower

flip

fly

flag

glide

gloves

globe

glasses

glue

clock

cleats

closet

clown

clip

plant

plum

plates

plane

sled

slide

slug

slippers

sloth

flamingo

sleeping

playing

place

L sentences

1. Luke was late for school last week.
2. He plays on a baseball and a football team.
3. Let's go to the lake later.
4. Climb the ladder to the slide.
5. My little brother lost the game last night.
6. Look in the living room for your slippers.

Laura and her brother Dylan are in preschool. Laura likes to play with her dolls while Dylan likes to play with Legos. When they play together, they like to play catch with a ball. Laura and Dylan also like to color with chalk, blow up balloons, and go to the library to listen to stories.

more L words

laugh	learn	fell	bowling
lamp	ladder	smell	allergy
land	ladybug	peel	balloon
lake	later	wheel	chocolate
late	lazy	hill	dollar
lawn	larger	will	eleven
left	laundry	file	family
less	lemonade	mile	baseball
lead	lesson	ball	cereal
leak	leader	call	island
leaves	liquid	goal	jelly
lid	listen	roll	pillow
list	little	pool	really
light	lightning	rule	telephone
long	lonely	boil	umbrella
love	louder	curl	vanilla
lost	lucky	canal	yellow
look	mail	hotel	carefully
loud	tail	oatmeal
luck	bell	until

more L paragraphs

I like going to the lake. There are a million fun things to do there. In the morning we go sailing across the lake on our sailboat. In the afternoon, we sit on the lawn and sip lemonade. At night we catch lightning bugs. I can hardly wait to go back!

Look at the calendar. Turn to July and see when the carnival will be here. It always comes near the middle of July. Last year, it was on the July eleventh. Remember how much fun we had!

Did you call the library to find out how late they are open? I still have ten pages to write on my report on London, England. I lost pages on the computer when the electricity went off last night. Now, I have to start all over. I'm afraid I will never finish on time.

Let's go to the pool. Bring your towel and sunscreen. Let's both wear our blue bathing suits! We can pack a lunch to eat on the lawn. My mom will drive us and I'll call you before we leave.

Do you eat a lot of fruits and vegetables? I like watermelon, cantaloupe, and apples. I also like salad. I like the lettuce with carrots and croutons. My brother Alex loves celery!

The wind is blowing hard today. It blew the clothes off the line. They flew across the lawn and landed in the flowerbed. The wind was so strong, a little tree bent and snapped! The children's playhouse flipped over in the strong wind. A lawn chair blew into the glass door, but luckily it did not break.