

COUNCIL ROCK HIGH SCHOOL

Name

Tools:

- 1. after an intro. word, phrase, or clause
- 2. around a NE phrase or clause
- 3. between parts of dates and addresses
- 4. between items in a series

Section

- 5. comma & conjunction to join 2 sentences
- 6. between adjectives before a noun
- 7. around interrupters
  - A. direct address
  - B. parenthetical expression
  - C. appositive

Practice Test #2

1
7c 1. Beyond the obvious evidence, the suspect has also shown motive, the desire to attain the strong, powerful voting rights of stock ownership.
6

1
7b 2. No, Samantha, you cannot be excused from work on Saturday; however, I could give you a day off earlier in the week, if that would help you.
1
2

7b 3. It is the power of the vote, not the power of the voice, that keeps America, the land of opportunity, strong, free, and proud.
7c
4

7b 4. The final vote, I believe, will occur on Thursday, January 15, the date of our first board meeting of the new year.
3
7c

6 5. Sinja is an arrogant, rude, insecure fool, and I will not invite him to my party, which will be held at 114 Donners Drive, Newtown.
5
2
3

2 6. Roberto, who is known for his bright, gentle humor, will be the team leader, for I know that he, not Sam Clarkinton, will do the best job.
6
5
7b

7a 7. Tom, although I agree with your proposal, the one on salary increases, the company cannot afford such an ambitious, far-reaching project at this time.
1
7c
6

2 8. Karina Kernitzgey, criticized for her liberal views, left our political party, yet she still could, however, run for public office on the Libertarian ticket, one opposed to our own views.
5
7b
7c

4 9. Rain, high winds, and heavy hail delayed the arrival of the aircraft; we could not, consequently, arrive at our destination, the tip of Florida, in time for our family reunion.
7b
7c

6
1
1
70

there

10. Within her cold, cruel heart, lies the warmth of a loving woman of tremendous courage; in addition, she has the courage of a lion, not the timidity of a mouse!

76
6
2
11. This author is, without a doubt, trying to communicate a dark, brooding atmosphere, which adequately portrays family life in the years of the Great Depression.

5
3
1
3
12. I would love to attend the party, but Thursday, January 14, is a most inconvenient time; therefore, could we change to Friday, January 15?

6
1
5
13. If that ignorant, prejudiced fool yells one more curse word at me, I will write him up for harassment, and I hope they fire him!

1
2
14. Surrounded by the rushing waters, the struggling fox clung to a log, hoping that it would float to shore.

2
6
15. Sam Clempson, who is our class president, has recruited a group of enthusiastic, loyal followers to help him with the plans for our Senior Prom.

76
4
16. Sam Clempson, our class president, has recruited a group of followers who are enthusiastic, loyal, and efficient.

Tools:

1. after an intro. word, phrase, or clause
2. around a NE phrase or clause
3. between parts of dates and addresses
4. between items in a series
5. comma & conjunction to join 2 sentences
6. between adjectives before a noun
7. around interrupters
  - A. direct address
  - B. parenthetical expression
  - C. appositive

Make note of the different rules.