CHURCHVILLE ELEMENTARY TEACHERS LEARN TO TEACH LIKE PIRATES

Churchville Elementary teachers, who are part of a weekly professional development book club, have been coming together on a regular basis to learn how to teach like a pirate. The educational concept is based on the book, Teach Like a Pirate, by Dave Burgess. The word pirate is an acronym for Passion, Immersion, Rapport, Ask & Analyze, Transformation and Enthusiasm. Through their reading of the book and discussion of the concepts, the group is learning how to bring the "PIRATE" philosophy into their lessons. On October 9th, the CES teacher pirates Skyped with original teacher pirate, Dave Burgess himself! He shared an overview of his book and teaching philosophy and answered questions.
